MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Personnel

SUBJECT: WAEPA Life Insurance

25X1A

1. Agency Notice [REDACTED] is the primary official source of information concerning the availability and eligibility requirements of WAEPA life insurance. With respect to eligibility I understand that this insurance is available only to civilian Government employees serving outside the continental limits of the United States but that, in view of the general rotation concepts of CIA and the extensive TDY travel assignments of CIA headquarters personnel, it has been determined that many CIA departmental employees are eligible.

2. This insurance is considered so important by many Agency officials that additional steps have been taken to call it to the attention of Agency employees (see attached DD/I Notice 20-660-1). This DD/I Notice has, in turn, led to the suggestion by an Assistant Director that steps be taken to define more precisely the conditions of eligibility. It might be possible, for example, to establish that any individual would be eligible to apply for this insurance providing:

a. He signs a statement that he is willing to serve or travel overseas at the direction of the Agency.

b. There is no Medical Office service qualification prohibiting foreign service or travel by the individual.

These two requirements, when related to the general CIA rotation and assignment policies, would seem to establish a firm basis for eligibility which might be fully acceptable to the underwriting authorities. If so, and if the eligibility requirements were to be specifically prescribed in Agency issuances, I believe this excellent insurance would be carried by many employees who at present may consider themselves ineligible.

3. A final suggestion is made that the arrangements referred to in paragraph 2. of the DD/I Notice 20-660-1 be applied to all Agency personnel. This may be the intention, although it is conceivable that such briefing emphasis is being directed only to DD/I personnel.

4. The above suggestions and views are strictly informal and may or may not have merit.
